O-DAY - Wednesday 19th Feb - Overall event rating: 3

Concern	Low chance	Moderate chance	Considerable chance	Notes
Noise	- No or low volume amplified music - No or minimal amplified speaking	- Amplified recorded music - Amplified live music (acoustic) - Amplified speaking - High Pitch noises such as microphone feedback may be present	- Live Music - Amplified music played at high volume - High Pitch noises such as microphone feedback may be present	Disposable ear plugs will be available from Guild Reception, Guild Accessibility stall and Guild info stall.
Crowds	No crowds anticipated	- moderate crowds anticipated (100+) - some queing expected	- Large crowds anticipated (500+) - queing expected	O-Day usually attracts between 8,000 - 10,000 people. You may need to queue for up to 10 minutes for some stalls and giveaways.
Toilets	Universal Accessibile toilets within event area.	Accessible toilets available close by event area.	- No accessible toilets available close by - Accessible toilet is located at considerable distance (500m or more)	There are accessible toilets available in 108, 103 and next to The Tav in builidng 106c. You can access the campus access and inclusion map here: https://s38508.pcdn.co/wp-content/uploads/sites/5/2023/02/curtin-campus-access-inclusion-map.pdf
Heat / Sun / Weather	Event located in full shelter / shade or inside	Event is outside but adequate shelter / shade is provided	Event is outside and minimal shade / shelter is available.	O-day is usually held on a very hot day. Sunscreen is available from the Guild Info stall outside Guild reception (106f)
Strobe / Flashing Lights	No strobe, flashing lights or AV.	- Minimal strobe, flashing lights or AV. - Static lighting used	- Heavy use of strobe, flashing lights or AV.
Seating	- Adequate high and low seating available within event area - Reserved seating close to stage is available.	- Some seating available within event area	- Minimal seating available in event area	Please see sensory map for any designated seating and rest areas. Some seating is located in the Guild undercover courtyard, and the courtyard between the Tav and Concept Cafe.
Accessible Path of Travel	- Clear egress, even ground and adequate clearence for mobilty aids. - Ramps / elevators available	- a mixture of even and uneven ground - some egress may be narrow / blocked	- uneven ground or crowded areas which may be difficult for users of mobilty aids - no access ramps or elevators	Some cable tray may be present throughout the event. You can access the campus access and inclusion map here: https://s38508.pcdn.co/wp-content/uploads/sites/5/2023/02/curtin-campus-access-inclusion-map.pdf
Smells	No or minimal strong smells are expected at this event	Some strong smells may be present or you may be close to smells while attending	Considerable strong smells are expected (food, frangrance, animals)	You may be in close proximity to the following smells while attending this event. These may include food smells, perfumes and other scents associated with large crowds.
18+ / Alcohol	All ages event. No alcohol served	Event in 18+ venue but an all ages area is available	18+ event, alcohol served.	O-Day is an all ages event but The Tav will be open and operating as normal (18+ venue)
Wayfinding / Signage	- An event map is available in printed and digital formats OR no map required (small event) - A sensory map is available in printed and digital formats - Ammenities are well sign posted			Please ask one of our friendly Guild Event staff if you need help finding something.
Venue Lighting	Venue is well lit / event is during the day	Some dark areas but path of travel is illuminated.	Some areas are poorly lit
Getting There	- Parking (including ACROD) is located close to event venue and there is an accessible path of travel to the event venue.	- Parking (including ACROD) is located a short distance away from the event venue (500m or less) and there is an accessible path of travel to the event venue.	- Parking (including ACROD) is located at a considerable distance (more than 500m) from the event venue.	You can access the campus access and inclusion map here: https://s38508.pcdn.co/wp-content/uploads/sites/5/2023/02/curtin-campus-access-inclusion-map.pdf More information on public transport and parking on campus can be found here: https://www.curtin.edu.au/about/campus-locations/perth/directions-maps-parking/
Rest Areas / Quiet space	A designated rest area or quiet space is available within the event area and is marked on the sensory map.	A rest area is available within the event but you may still experience some noise while accessing it.	A designated rest area is not possible due to the busy nature of this event	The Guild accessibility department will be available for use as a designated rest area. This room has air conditioning, soft seating adjustable lighting and some activities like colouring and puzzles.