

Prayer Room Access Guidelines

Ph: (08) 9266 2900

Email: reception@guild.curtin.edu.auWeb: www.guild.curtin.edu.au/multifaithservices

Curtin University supports the diversity of religious and spiritual beliefs of students and staff on campus. The Multi-Faith Prayer Room is one of the resources that the university provides for faith based support.

In order to provide fair and equitable use/access to this room please note and abide by these following guidelines.

General Principal:

The Prayer Room is a Multi-Faith facility available for faith based activities such as individual or group prayer/meditation, the study of religious writings and meetings of faith based communities.

Please refrain from using it as a place for social gathering, to eat or study.

Use of the Prayer Room:

- Booked meetings have priority, all other users must vacate the room and not disturb bookings. Please be respectful of prior bookings and not enter the room.
- Unless there has been a prior booking made, this room is to be used as a shared space.
- The Prayer Room is for prayer, worship and meditation only. It is not a study room or a social area.
- DO NOT consume food or drink in the Prayer Room.
- DO NOT write/draw on the walls or bookcases.
- No advertising material is permitted in the Prayer Room.
- Return all books and cushions to the appropriately labelled cupboard before you leave.
- DO NOT use the toilets in bldg 109 as washing facilities. Proper Islamic facilities can be found in the Musalla Bldg 510.
- The Prayer Room must be left in a tidy condition, chairs stacked at the back of the room and rubbish in the bin provided.
- DO NOT leave personal belonging in the Prayer Room.

If you feel threatened, uncomfortable, or are using the facilities after hours – please call Curtin Safer Community Team on 9266 4444 (Ext: 4444). In an emergency, call 000 (0 000 – internal phone). You can also call Curtin Student Guild on 9266 2900.

If you wish to book the Prayer Room or give feedback, please contact the Curtin Student Guild Reception on 9266 2900 or email reception@guild.curtin.edu.au.