What it means to be terminated.

YOUR ACADEMIC STATUS

THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS WILL DETERMINE A STUDENT'S ACADEMIC STATUS AT THE END OF EACH STUDY PERIOD. YOUR ACADEMIC STATUS WILL BE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING:

GOOD STANDING

The student is achieving satisfactory course progress and can continue in the course. This status does not necessarily mean that you have passed all of your units.

CONDITIONAL STATUS

The student is at risk of not achieving satisfactory course progress but is permitted to continue in the course. There may be conditions set by the Head of School.

TERMINATED

The student has not achieved satisfactory course progress and is terminated from the course. The student is not permitted to continue in the course without approval from the Academic Registrar.

Termination after one study period

Normally this does not occur. If this applies to you, come and see us to discuss it further.

Termination after two study periods

The student is on Conditional Status in the last semester AND has failed 50% or more of enrolled units or SWA of less than 50, or failed any unit a second time.

Your options: domestic students.

AT THIS POINT, ALL TERMINATED STUDENTS ARE CONSIDERED TERMINATED PENDING APPEAL. ANY STUDENT TERMINATED FROM A COURSE DUE TO FAILURE TO ACHIEVE SATISFACTORY COURSE PROGRESS HAS A RIGHT TO APPEAL THAT DECISION. BOTH DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS HAVE OPTIONS GOING FORWARD.

OPTION 1

ACCEPT TERMINATION AND CEASE STUDYING

If you decide to accept the termination you may decide to:

- Change universities,
- Pursue an alternative educational path,
- Pursue an alternative career, or
- Travel

You may apply for re-admission to the same course at Curtin after a period of 1 year. Some courses will accept re-admissions after a period of 6 months. You will need to demonstrate that your personal circumstances have changed significantly and, if possible, include evidence of relevant work experience or other studies you may have successfully completed since ceasing study in your original course.

OPTION 2

SWITCH COURSE

Termination means you may not continue in your particular course; it does not mean that you have been terminated from the University. You may apply to another course within the University. Head down to Curtin Connect and enquire about enrolling there.

**Note: not all Curtin courses take new enrolments mid-year.*

If you have previously switched courses following a termination, certain conditions may apply (please refer to the Assessment and Student Progression Manual). Some courses may not allow you to enrol if you are currently on Terminated status from another course. If this is the case, please contact Student Assist.

OPTION 3

APPEAL TERMINATION

International students.

INTERNATIONAL ONSHORE STUDENTS STUDYING WITHIN AUSTRALIA ON A STUDENT VISA, WHO HAVE BEEN TERMINATED FROM THEIR CURRENT COURSE, COULD POTENTIALLY BE IN BREACH OF STUDENT VISA CONDITION 8202 "ACHIEVING SATISFACTORY COURSE PROGRESS". YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO APPEAL YOUR TERMINATION.

ACCEPT TERMINATION AND CEASE STUDYING

If you accept the termination and do not appeal the decision this will put you in breach of your student visa and Curtin is obligated to inform the Department of Home Affairs (DHA). Your student visa will be canceled and a 3-year exclusion period placed on further visa applications to Australia. This means that you will have to leave the country.

OPTION 3

APPEAL TERMINATION

OPTION 2

APPEAL TERMINATION AND SWITCH COURSE WITH RISKS

It is your right to apply for admission to a second course at Curtin if you are terminated from a first course.

- If your appeal from the first course is unsuccessful, Curtin is obligated to report you to DHA that you are in breach of your student visa, and
- If your appeal from the first course is successful, Curtin is obligated to report your change of course to DHA. The decision whether or not to cancel your visa is made by DHA, Curtin has no influence on this process.

The risks of doing so are as follows:

- You risk cancellation of your visa and a three year exclusion being applied by DHA, irrespective of your admission to a second course.
- If this occurs, you will not be permitted to continue studying at Curtin and risk losing all fees paid for units you enrolled in for the second course, and
- You will also receive no credit for any uncompleted units at the time of your visa cancellation.

How do I appeal: the process.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU CONTINUE TO ENROL IN UNITS AND ATTEND CLASSES AS USUAL UNTIL A FINAL DECISION HAS BEEN MADE. BELOW ARE THE STEP-BY-STEP INSTRUCTIONS TO APPEAL BY REQUEST FOR REVIEW, FOLLOWED BY A DIAGRAM OF THE APPEALS PROCESS.

HOW TO APPEAL REQUEST FOR REVIEW

1. Print and complete the “Request for Review of Academic Status”
<http://students.curtin.edu.au/essentials/forms-documents/forms/>
2. Attach your personal statement. A sample letter can be found on the last page of this booklet.
3. Attach any supporting documents.
4. Submit these documents within 20 working days (i.e. 28 calendar days) from the date of the Official Communication. You must send your review via email to progressions@curtin.edu.au.

*STUDENT PROGRESS
APPEALS COMMITTEE

How do I appeal: writing the letter.

STUDENTS APPEALING AGAINST TERMINATIONS WILL NORMALLY BE REQUIRED TO DEMONSTRATE THAT THEIR RESULTS HAVE BEEN AFFECTED BY CIRCUMSTANCES OUTSIDE OF THEIR CONTROL. ALL RELEVANT SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION MUST BE ATTACHED.

WRITING A PERSONAL STATEMENT WHAT YOU SHOULD INCLUDE

You should include these points in your personal statement:

- Show what plans you have/will make to improve your studies,
- Show your commitment to the course, and
- Include your student ID and course that you are applying for.

Include any information from when you were placed on Conditional status up until the termination notice. Include dates, if applicable.

If you are unsure how to construct an appeal letter, refer to the sample letter on page 9, or make an appointment with a Student Assist officer at Curtin Student Guild.

Once submitted, your appeal will be forwarded on to the Head of School who will assess your appeal and determine the outcome. You will be notified of the outcome via the Official Communication Channel (OCC).

Possible outcomes:

- Termination remains, or
- Academic status reverts back to conditional (with possible conditions) and student is permitted to carry on with course.

Circumstances that may warrant a review:

Here are some examples of circumstances that may have affected your ability to make satisfactory progress in your course.

- Illness or medical condition,
- Personal or psychological issues,
- Physical injury,
- Family injury, illness or medical condition,
- Unavoidable or unexpected work commitments e.g. relocation.
- If your studies have been impacted by Covid-19, explain how your situation has changed and how this affected your ability to study.

Remember that the circumstances you offer needs to be substantiated with supporting documentation.

What can I do: my review was denied.

IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE OUTCOME OF THE REQUEST FOR REVIEW, YOU CAN LODGE A FURTHER APPEAL TO THE STUDENT PROGRESS APPEALS COMMITTEE (SPAC).

HOW TO APPEAL SUBMISSION TO SPAC

Print and complete the “Appeal to Student Progress Appeals Committee” form:

<http://students.curtin.edu.au/essentials/forms-documents/forms/>

- Documentation submitted with the original Request for Review will be used by the SPAC to assess the appeal.
- Students are only allowed to elaborate on circumstances they have indicated on their original Request for Review. You cannot introduce new issues.
- Have your appeal letter reviewed by a Student Assist Officer at the Guild before submission.
- Submit these documents no later than 10 working days from the date of the Official Communication advising you of the outcome of your Request for Review by your Head of School. You must send your submission to SPAC via email to progressions@curtin.edu.au.

What can I do: SPAC appeal denied.

IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE OUTCOME OF THE COMMITTEE'S DECISION, YOU CAN MAKE A COMPLAINT TO THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN OMBUDSMAN.

The Ombudsman is independent and external to the University and does not charge any fees for their services.

Please note that the Ombudsman will normally only consider whether the University has followed its own policies and procedures, and whether the handling of your case has been fair and reasonable. The Ombudsman does not make a new decision; however, as a result of an investigation, the Ombudsman may recommend that the University reconsider your case.

You will need to make a complaint in writing if you would like the Ombudsman to examine your case.

What to do if you have not received the outcome of your appeal by the start of the next semester.

In some cases, there may be a delay in processing appeals. If you have not had a response before the commencement of the following semester, you will need to contact the examinations office to check on the progress of your appeal. You should also continue to enrol in units and attend classes on a daily basis, pending appeal outcome, so that you don't miss out on valuable learning once the course has started.

RE: REQUEST FOR REVIEW OF TERMINATION DECISION – SCHOOL OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

I wish to formally request for a review of my present terminated status.

During the course of this semester I experienced difficulty. The reasons for my poor performance were: Keep in mind that the university will be referring to your academic history when reviewing your appeal. Explain your past situation accurately (state dates if applicable), covering from when you were placed on Conditional status till the termination notice. This could be personal, medical or financial issues.

Order your explanation either chronologically or in order of difficulty. Writing that “I have been through difficulties” is not enough for the assessor to understand your situation. Be specific!

I enclose [name of documentation] to substantiate my case. If applicable, attach supporting documents such as a medical certificate, letter from a counsellor, email conversations with staff members, etc. Ensure details such as dates and content on supporting documents are visible.

The events that led to my poor past performance will not be repeated. This part is very important so don't skim it! Writing “This will not happen again” or “I will try harder” and providing a timetable is not enough.

List the improvements you have made. What strategies have you put in place to minimise repeat of past issues? If the issue was medical or financial, how has this been resolved? Why are you confident that it will not be an issue again. Be specific!

What on and off campus support services can you access? If you can, link the strategies to the above difficulties to show that you are aware of how to deal with the same problems in the future.

Thank you for taking the time to read my appeal.

The school will base their decision on what you have submitted. The school will not contact you for more information or clarifications. Ensure that you have provided the school with everything in this submission.

Yours sincerely,
